

Good Afternoon Classified Staff, Faculty and Managers,

At the rescheduled Board meeting on December 19th, we shared our updated preliminary projections for 2017-2018 Budget development with the Board of Education.

For information about budget projections, processes and timelines, please visit the budget website @ www.lanecc.edu/budget

During winter term the Budget and Finance subcommittee of College Council will continue their work to present a balanced budget to the Board and budget committee. This subcommittee is comprised of representation from students, staff, faculty and managers.

Questions about the budget or the process? Please call or email me directly.

Thank you for all you do for our students.

Happy Winter term to all

Brian
