Human Services: Juvenile Corrections

Purpose To train individuals to work directly with juvenile offenders in various settings, including Oregon Youth Authority, as well as other public, private, and non-profit agencies/programs.

Learning Outcomes The graduate will:

- provide supervision for juvenile offenders.
- facilitate in the treatment process and crisis intervention.
- provide social and life skills training.
- maintain records and documentation.
- engage in support services.
- monitor and ensure a secure environment.
- use appropriate library and information resources to research professional issues and support lifelong learning.
- formulate questions that can be addressed with data and collect, organize and display relevant data to answer them.

Employment Trends There had been a decline in juvenile crime during the late 1990's, but that trend tends to be shifting. The resurgence of youth gangs since the year 2000 has reflected an increase in gang homicides and other criminal activity. Nearly all juvenile correction facilities are filled to capacity necessitating more correctional facilities and the demand for more juvenile corrections personnel. This certificate meets the minimum level pre-employment requirement for the Oregon Youth Authority (OYA).

Wages Beginning wage for an OYA Group Life Coordinator II is approximately $2,464-$3,400 monthly, but salary and benefit packages vary greatly depending up the employing agency and geographical location.
