Providence Health Plan National Provider Network

- You may receive covered health care services from a provider belonging to our nationwide network of participating providers, including physicians and facilities that participate in:
  - Providence EPO Network (for Personal Option and Open Option plans)
  - Providence PPO Network
  - First Choice Health Network
  - MultiPlan, Inc. – Private Health Care Systems
- Providence EPO network is our primary provider network. Use this network when you are in the Providence EPO service area. To see our service area map where EPO providers practice, visit <http://www.providence.org/healthplans/pdfs/epo/epomap.pdf>
- When you use the ZIP code feature of the provider directory search engine, you automatically will be re-directed to the appropriate online provider directory for the ZIP code you entered.
