

Providence RN Medical Advice Line

It's after hours and you need some medical advice? Call the Providence RN Medical Advice Line.

Providence RN is a free medical advice line for Providence Health Plan members. You can call day or night, seven days a week, to speak with a registered nurse.

Call Providence RN when you are traveling, or when you have a sick child at home. Also call with questions about treating the flu, colds, backaches or other routine ailments.

Our nurses can answer many of your questions, and help you determine when you should seek care from your physician or provider.

Providence RN is easy to use:

- FREE medical advice
- Available 24 hours a day, seven days a week
- Toll-free call throughout the United States
- Confidential
- Physician approved

503-574-6520 or 1-800-700-0481
1-800-735-2900 (Oregon Relay for TTY)

*Providence RN Medical Advice Line is available for Providence Health Plan members only. Providence Health Plan members who are residents of California are not eligible for this service. Language translation available.

