What
comes to mind
when you hear
Title IX?

What is Title IX?

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 protects people from discrimination based on sex in education programs or activities that receive Federal financial assistance (this includes colleges and universities).

- Used to be focused on women's athletics, now pertains to sexual harassment cases in addition.

What is Title IX?

- Sexual Harassment
 - Sexual Assault
 - Dating Violence
 - Domestic Violence
 - Stalking
 - Quid Pro Quo
- Retaliation
- Athletics
- Single Sex Programs
- Gender Identity and Gender Expression
- Pregnant and Parenting Students

Can you think of examples of what this might look like?

What Can it Look Like?

- Unwanted touching (does not have to be sexual parts)
- ANY non-consensual sexual activity
- Physical and violent assaults
- Domestic/interpersonal violence
- Hostile environments
- Digital harassment
- Even when there are no witnesses

What is Consent?

What is Consent?

- The voluntary, informed, uncoerced agreement through words and actions freely given, which a reasonable person would interpret as willingness to participate in mutually agreed-upon sexual acts.
- Happens when each partner willingly and affirmatively chooses to participate.

What Consent is Not

- Consent to one act does not constitute consent to another act.
- Consent on a prior occasion does not constitute consent on an other occasion.
- The existence of a current/prior relationship does not constitute consent.
- Can be withdrawn or modified at any time.
- Is not implicit in a person's manner of dress.
- Accepting a meal, gift, or date does not imply consent.
- Silence, passivity, or lack of resistance does not constitute consent.
- Initiation by someone who a reasonable person knows or should have known to be deemed incapacitated is not consent.

What is your Responsibility as an Athlete?

Athlete's Responsibility

- If you see inappropriate behavior, say something.
- Report to Title IX and/or coaching staff.
- Don't participate in inappropriate behavior.
- Pay attention to how you interact with others.

Title IX Process at LCC

Sexual Respect at Lane

Lane Community College does not tolerate sex or gender discrimination, including sexual misconduct such as sexual harassment and sexual assault, stalking, and intimate partner violence. These behaviors are harmful to the well-being of our community members, the learning/working environment, and collegial relationships among our students, faculty, and staff. All forms of prohibited conduct under this procedure are regarded as serious College offenses, and violations will result in discipline, including the possibility of separation from the College. State and federal laws also address conduct that may meet the College's definitions of prohibited conduct, and criminal prosecution may take place independently of any disciplinary action instituted by the College.

What is Sexual Misconduct?

Sexual misconduct offenses include but are not limited to:

- Sexual harassment;
- Non-consensual sexual contact (or attempts to commit same);
- Non-consensual sexual intercourse (or attempts to commit same);
- Domestic violence/dating violence/intimate partner violence;
- Sexual exploitation.

Scenarios

Scenario

You meet a person at a party and feel like you “hit it off”. The person has had many alcoholic beverages and needs a ride home. They accept a ride from you and when you get there the person gives you a tour. When inside you start hugging and kissing each other and end up in bed without clothes, but the person falls asleep. What should happen next?

- A. Wake them up!
- B. Continued hugging and kissing is okay
- C. Sexual intercourse is okay
- D. Self-pleasure next to the person is okay
- E. Something else?

Scenario

You are in a relationship with a partner who you engaged in a sexual relationship with. You have recently broken up, but ran into this person while out and ended up going home together. What should happen next?

- A. Because you were in a relationship before you have consent to engage in a sexual encounter.
- B. You must gain consent again before engaging.
- C. Something else?
