

Description: This course is designed for students who are reading at college level, are interested in majoring in the computer field, and wish to strengthen their learning skills and strategies. In this class you will learn how to take notes from lectures and textbooks, study for tests, improve your memory, read and study from textbooks, manage time effectively, use the library, and learn specific skills that will help you be successful in your future computer classes.

Upon successful course completion, the student will:	This outcome will be assessed by one or more of the following:
Develop time management and goal setting strategies	Written assignments Weekly time management Performance tests
Demonstrate a variety of textbook reading strategies	Written assignments Portfolio project Performance tests
Generate notes in a variety of formats from diverse sources	Written assignments Portfolio project
Locate and use basic resources in LCC Library	Performance tests Portfolio project
Apply various memory techniques	Performance tests Portfolio project
Employ exam preparation and exam taking techniques	Performance tests
Monitor progress in strengthening study skills and strategies	Journal Survey

Course Description:

Upon successful course completion, the student will:	This outcome will be assessed by one or more of the following: