

2018-2019

Financial Aid Eligible Programs

To qualify for financial aid, you must enroll in one of Lane's Financial Aid eligible programs with the intent of completing the program. Not all programs offered at Lane are eligible for financial aid funding. Additionally, if you have completed the coursework for a program, you cannot continue to receive financial aid for the program, even if the degree or certificate is not yet awarded.

Eligible Programs

- Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer (AAOT)
- Associate of Science Oregon Transfer – Business (ASOT-B)
- Associate of Science Oregon Transfer - Computer Science (ASOT-CS)
- Associate of Science (AS)
- Associate of Science - University of Oregon (AS-UO)
- Associate of Science - Oregon State University (AS-OSU)
- Associate of General Studies (AGS)
- Most Associate of Applied Science Career Technical Programs (AAS)
 - See Ineligible Programs and Limited Eligibility Programs for exceptions

Ineligible Programs

- All AAS, CERT-2 and CERT-1 Apprenticeship Programs
- Less Than One-Year Certificates
- Career Pathways Certificate (CPC)
- Oregon Transfer Module
- Direct Transfer Programs and/or Coursework for another school's program (including pre-reqs for Grad school)
 - Consult the school awarding the degree to see if they will fund your Lane courses through a consortium agreement
- EMT Basic Certification (where EMT 151 & EMT 152 are the only courses required)
- Continuing Education Programs (non-credit coursework)
- Collaboration programs between Lane and other institutions
- Any degree or certificate expected to be approved in a future catalog year

Limited Eligibility Programs

While completing prerequisites for a program that has a competitive/point based admissions process, you have limited or no financial aid eligibility. Your options include: 1) complete the AGS, AAOT, or AS degree while taking your prerequisites; 2) complete your prerequisites without the benefit of financial aid; or 3) request Preparatory Funding (i.e. loans at a reduced level) for a maximum of 12 consecutive months. This option is available one time during your lifetime. Forms are available online.
