SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Three weeks studying and enjoying the culture and food of Normandy... miam!

And four days sight-seeing in Paris...

All dates and activities are tentative and subject to change.

CLASSES

- Before leaving for Caen, you will take an online placement exam.
- Classes are offered at four levels of proficiency: A2, B1, B2, and C1. You will be placed according to your level.
- You will be in an international classroom, and taught by a native French teacher who is trained in FLES (français langue étrangère).
- Classes include: grammatical structures, vocabulary enrichment, phonetics, listening comprehension and oral skills. Students studying at the B1, B2, and C1 levels may also have classes in literature and civilization. (Total of 45 hours instruction per week)
- Students in all levels will benefit from cultural enrichment activities
- All students will take an overarching Lane course which will include a pre-departure orientation day on campus, reflection on the experience via regular blog entries, and a focus on intercultural learning.
