

LANE INDEX

With apologies to Harper's Magazine. "Harper's Index" is a registered trademark.

Number of distinct degrees and other credentials offered at Lane Community College¹: 99

Average age of Lane credit students²: 29

Average age of Lane credit students in online courses²: 30

Ratio of females to males among Lane credit students³: 51 to 49

Ratio of females to males among Lane credit students in online courses³: 65 to 35

Percentage of Lane students who do not review for their initial math placement test⁴: 54%

Number of courses by which students reviewing 2 to 4 hours place higher than non-reviewers⁴: 0.91

Fraction by which Lane students registering late (on or after the first day) are more likely to withdraw⁵: 1/3

Deficit in course success rate of Lane students registering late compared to those registering on time⁵: 4.5%

Deficit in success rate of students registering late in math courses⁵: 7.1%

In the last 10 years, number of years in which Lane female students outperformed males in GPA⁶: 10

For every 10 days with precipitation in Eugene, Oregon, the number of sunny days⁷: 11

¹Lane Community College Institutional Research and Planning (Lane IRAP): Includes 45 associates degrees and 54 certificates.

²Lane IRAP: Fall 2013 credit students excluding College Now, 28.7 years; subgroup in online courses, 29.9 years.

³Lane IRAP: Based on all Fall 2013 credit students including College Now.

⁴*A Student Survey on Math Placement at Lane Community College*, Anand Healy, Eric Rowen, Mary Gross, Alex Way, Ben Hill, 2012

⁵*Success and Completion of Late Registrants at Lane Community College*, Ben Hill and Data Coaches Group, 2011

⁶Lane IRAP

⁷<http://www.bestplaces.net/climate/city/oregon/Eugene>