Consent

The College considers consent as the voluntary, informed, un-coerced agreement through words and actions freely given, which a reasonable person would interpret as a willingness to participate in mutually agreed-upon sexual acts. Consent can be withdrawn or modified at any time.

Potential Sanctions

The College may impose sanctions on the respondent following a final determination of college disciplinary procedures for sexual misconduct. Possible sanctions range from warnings to educational outcomes, to suspension or expulsion from the College.

Sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking may be found to be criminal acts which may also subject the respondent to criminal and civil penalties under federal and state law.

To request this information in an alternate format please contact the Center for Accessible Resources at 541.463.5150 or accessibleresources@lanecc.edu.

College Protective Measures

Interim actions can include but are not limited to:

- imposing a no contact order on either party,
- scheduling and room changes,
- interim suspension and separation from the institution or restrictions on participation in the community.
